Dear Dr Tue Vu,

MS title: The potential impacts of climate and land-use changes on hydrology in the Central Highlands of Vietnam

Thank you for submitting your review of the above revised manuscript for Hydrological Sciences Journal.

We greatly appreciate the voluntary contribution that each reviewer gives to the Journal. We hope that we may continue to seek your assistance with the refereeing process for Hydrological Sciences Journal, and hope also to receive your own research papers that are appropriate to our aims and scope.

Best wishes,
Frances
